> Our Canton correspondent writes under date Sept. 14: -Although your Sir Richard took good care that the residents at the Consular ports should not be entirely exempted from the provisions of the Stamp Act, yet it does not seem to have occurred to his Excellency or to the collector of stamp-revenue, how the residents at the onen ports are to provide themselves with stamps. As only the adhesive kinds are required by those residing outside your colony, for the purpose of affixing to bills of exchange and such like instruments, if made payable or negotiable at your place, the packet-agents at the various ports should be supplied with a quantity for sale. If the residents at the Consular ports are made to contribute to the Colonial revenue, surely t will not be too much for them to expect that such facility as that alluded to above be afforded them for procuring the stamps. The small commission which may be allowed to the packet agents on the amount of stamps sold, will most probably be counterbalanced by the larger revenue realised from the increased sale of stamps, for those who now for want of the above-mentioned facility of procuring them, direct their agents at Hongkong to buy and stick to their precious documents that is, just as much as if may be needed, will then prefer to buy in quantities.

THE NORTH

(Shanghai Recorder.) On the 5th September an extra appeared stating on undoubted authority, that placards have been posted at Chingkiang, threatening to pull down H. B. M. Consulate, and that the Rinaldo will be in readiness in case of any disturbance. The Literati, who instigated the outrage at Yangchow, have applied for rewards to

We are informed upon reliable anthority that the populace at Yangchow have been congratulated by the literary class on their recent success, and they have now decided to kill any foreign missionaries who may enter the city. There was a riot of a sympathetic nature inside the city of Chinking on the night of the 2nd inst. It was directed against the Taotai, who was accused of being in traitorous union with the missionaries. Several thousand, people broke into his Yamen, and smashed all his furniture, but did not touch the Taotai himself. The mob will not allow any missionaries to live inside the city. The literati are the cause of all this trouble, and they are the men who are to be blamed. How unprovoked the attack on the Rev. Mr Taylor was, will be understood when it is stated that he has not preached once in Yangehow, and has not visited a soul there. He was merely making preparations for the future.

A subsequent issue says :-- That the threat of attacking the British Consulate at Chinkiang will be carried out is perhaps improbable; but that such an idea should have been entertained, much more so that it should have been given utterance to on plaards, speaks badly for the prestige of foeigners in Chiua, and is ominous in regard to continued peaceful relations. There is a point beyond which the most long suffering cannot go, even if they wish to do so. An officer from the Vice Roy has been sent to co-operate with Mr. Consul Medhurst. and one hundred armed men left for Yangchow this morning in the small steamer and boats lent by Messrs. Jardine Matheson & Co. H. I. M. Gunboat Le Brethon is at Chinkiang, and will furnish some men to the expedition to Yangchow.

The latest paragraph on this subject

We are informed officially that Mr. Medhurst returned to Chinkiang on September 9th, having obtained entirely the object of his mission. He left the next morning with the Prefect of Yangchow to visit Tsengkwo-fan at Nanking.

Outrages leave also occurred at Kewkeang :---A Correspondent informs as that the Rev. Mr. Hart, of the American Methodist Church at Rinking, was urged to visit some Chinese near that port. On leaving for a week's absence he fortunately gave his wife a rifle and told her to be on the look out for thieves, as on a previous occasion' when he had been called away, the house had been entered and various articles stolen. The first night of Mr. Hart's absence, a gang broke into the compound and attempted to enter the house, but a noise having occurred in the street, they ran away. On the second night, they came in force, and tried to break open the door leading up Mrs. Hart was entirely alone; but bravely cocking the rifle, she told them if they came a step further she would kill They heard the ominous click of the gun, and although there was only one woman against about ten men, they all took to their heels and ran away. The third night the residents went in force and patrolled he compound till day-break.

A Correspondent at Kinkiang, referring to the attack upon the Rev. Mr. Hart, mentioned in our Saturday's issue, informs us that it is the opinion of some shrewd observers of the Chinese at that port that the inducement held out to Mr. Hart to leave his place of abode, namely that some Chinese wished to consult him about a new tistament to be translated into the dialect of the province, was simply a rule to get him out of the way, and that those who are familiar with the hostility of the Taoutai at that place to ill foreigners, can see a close connection between this act and many other such as the destruction of the Bungalow last year at this time; the insults offered to the Consuls: the abuse of late heaped upon Mr Kleinwächter, the Commissioner of Customs. In the infamous assault upon the Rev. Mr Höbing at Wuching by milita y students; the attempted burning alive of English women and children at Yangchow, only fifteen miles from the Treaty port of Chinkiang, and this other attempt to rob and perhaps murder an American lady at Kinkiang, we have a chain of damning evidence, which ought to call for the most vigorous action on the part of the Treaty powers.

A correspondent writing from Hankow under date of 3d September says :-An auction which took place here a few lavs ago formed a half amusing and half melancholy evidence of the manner in which this place has fallen back. The property of Messrs Alfred Wilkinson & Co., who are closing their establishment here, was brought under the hammer. At 11 a.m. a Concession lot (not Messra Wilkinson & Co.,) was offered, the first bid being half a tael, the offers lingered thereabout for some time, and the lot was bought in by the British Consul, nobody wanting it, Two offered, and finally sold for Tis. 26 each but the crown of the sale was a plot of ground at Hang Yang, 862 square feet, once valued at Tls. 5,000, which was sold for Tls. 5.
